How to apply for an IN-YEAR ADMISSION

Casual enquiry

Parents are welcome to contact the Admissions Secretary at the School to enquire if there are vacancies, without the requirement to make a formal application.

Formal application

All applications should be made in writing by letter or email to the Admissions Secretary at the School. In order to process the application the following information must be provided:

Applicant's name, address and contact telephone number

Child's name

Child's date of birth

The name of the child's primary school.

If the applicant is applying on religious grounds they must refer to the Supplementary Information Form included in the Admission Policy for clarification of the evidence required by the School.

Applications are dealt with in accordance with The Bristol Standard for School Admissions.
